CONSUMPTIVE MILKERS ENDANGER PUBLIC HEALTH Commission Hears That Rejected Milk Is Made Into Cheese. In a barn in the Bronx. Five minutes after Mrs. Rosenbaum's chauffeur, Charles Marks of No. 409 East Eighty-fourth street, had entered the Rosenbaum apartment to report the arrival of the auto, the machine disappeared and the police are again taking a general look around. The license number of the auto is 24,187. No one was found who noticed the machine boing driven off.

It was asserted before Gov. Glynn's Milk Investigating Commission in the Milk Investigating Commission in the City Hall to-day that there are hundreds of regular cow-milkers in this State who are dying of tuberculests and that a large percentage of the milk that falls to stand the amitary test of the Board of Health is made into cheese.

Dr. M. B. McMillan, who represented the Health Board, said there was a tendency to lower the standard of milk and that unless steps are taken to prevent this. New York will be exposed to a serious danger.

Dr. Bowdish, Health Officer of Cornwall, said he understood that when milk was rejected in New York it was sent to Yonkers.
